18. 다음 글에서 밑줄 친 They가 가리키는 것은?

The societies of thousands of years ago became buried in sand and mud. Some of the places where people once lived were covered by soil because of earthquakes. Others disappeared because of war, fire, flood, or widespread disease. Whatever the reason, cities were left to be found centuries later. Beneath the surface of each place, there is a story of the people who lived there. There are some people who uncover these cities and examine the things that people made and left there. They try to find out pieces of the story.

[33~34] 다음 글의 제목으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

33. Stroke is one of the leading causes of death and disability. It is caused when blood cannot flow to the brain. Nicotine raises blood pressure by making blood thicker and stickier, and blocks the flow of blood to the head. As a result, smokers are at least twice as likely to suffer strokes as nonsmokers. Those who smoke over 25 cigarettes a day are nearly ten times as likely to have strokes as those who don't smoke at all.

① How to Quit Smoking
② What Makes You Smoke?
③ Smoking: A Cause of Stroke
④ Keeping Your Blood Healthy
⑤ Dangers of High Blood Pressure

34. Suppose you call a shop to say a shirt fell apart after washing. You'd better say, "It's surprising such a fine shop as yours does this." Praise the store and say that you expect satisfaction from it. You also need to keep cool. Tell the persons you are not angry at them. When I complained to a phone company, I said to a woman, "I'm trying hard to keep the anger out of my voice because I know this is not your fault." She laughed and was very helpful. [2점]

If the company buys new computers, for instance, learn how to use them.

① joy of helping others
② ways of keeping a job
③ unemployment problems
④ importance of responsibility
⑤ choosing a right job for you

39. 다음 글의 어조로 가장 적절한 것은?

A famous movie star asked a photographer not to take pictures of him smoking during an interview. He said he didn't want children to see him smoking. It's a pity that he didn't think of it earlier. Now I refuse to watch any of his films after I was forced to watch him smoke continuously in a movie. Actors should know that they are role models. I find it very irritating to watch actors needlessly smoking.

① 방관적 ② 해학적 ③ 비관적
④ 비판적 ⑤ 감상적

40. 다음 글 바로 뒤에 올 수 있는 내용으로 가장 적절한 것은?

Today many people are concerned about environmental problems. Among the most serious problems are air and water pollution. The destruction of natural areas, such as forests and wetlands, is another concern. Wastes—from everyday garbage to dangerous chemicals—also damage our environment. These problems exist all over the world. They affect the survival of all living things. Happily, there are some ways to deal with these problems.

⑤ 원자력 발전소의 문제점

41. 다음 글에서 언론에 관하여 필자가 주장하는 바로 가장 적절한 것은? [2점]

Any effort to restrict the freedom of the press is rightly blamed. However, this freedom can easily be abused. Though we may enjoy reading about the lives of others, we would not equally enjoy reading about ourselves. Reporters say that facts are sacred, but they can give terrible sufferings to the individuals by publishing details about their private lives. Such a practice should be stopped.

① 사실을 근거로 보도해야 한다.
② 사생활을 침해해서는 안 된다.
③ 올바른 여론을 형성해야 한다.
④ 편파적으로 보도해서는 안 된다.

⑤ 인구 억제 정책을 강화하자.

46. 다음 글의 내용을 가장 잘 나타낸 것은? [2점]

Have you ever thought about how many seconds you have? By the time you reach the age of 75, you'll have lived for nearly 2.5 billion seconds. It seems quite a lot of time. But time flies fast. You should not waste time. Cherish every moment. And make a wise use of your seconds, minutes, hours, and days. Or you will have to be a beggar standing at street corners, hat in hand, and asking passers-by to drop their unused minutes into it.

① Haste makes waste.
② Time heals all wounds.
③ Beggars can't be choosers.
④ Many hands make light work.
⑤ Time and tide waits for no man.

[47～48] 다음 글을 읽고, 물음에 답하시오.

(A)

A football player tried to overcome his small size. He threw himself against gigantic players at higher speed than any other player and knocked them over like bowling pins in a bowling game. This is a good way to handle big problems in your life. You may think that your weakness can act as a serious obstacle in your life. However, as you try to overcome your weakness, you can discover a surprising strength or ability in yourself.

(B)

A great speaker said, "You can become strongest in your weakest place." He was speaking from his personal experience. He was a businessman who had great difficulty speaking in front of other people. In order to overcome his speech problem, he practiced speaking every day. Years later, he could become a good speaker. This example can apply to you. While you're trying to overcome your fear or weakness, you may discover that you're making a great improvement.

[49-50] 다음 글을 읽고, 물음에 답하시오.

One day Jack's wife was cleaning out a closet. "Look at all these umbrellas," Jack's wife said to him. "There are eight and they are all broken." "I'll take them all to the umbrella shop and have them repaired," Jack said, "They are too good to throw away." Jack took the eight umbrellas to the shop and left them there. "They'll be ready tomorrow," the shopkeeper said.

That evening Jack went home from the office by bus as usual. He sat next to an old woman. She had an umbrella on the floor near her. When the bus reached his stop, he picked up her umbrella and stood up. "Hey!" the woman said. "That's my umbrella." "I'm sorry," Jack said, giving it to her. "I wasn't thinking. Please forgive me. I didn't mean to steal it."

The next day he collected the umbrellas from the umbrella shop and got on the bus. As he sat down, a voice behind him said, "You have certainly had a successful day!" He turned around and saw the woman whose umbrella he had almost taken the day before.

49. Jack에 관한 설명 중, 윗글의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것은?
